His Ribs Fractured.

Four of Edward Docket's ribs were fractured, the shafts of one of Walter Marlow's coal carts were smashed, and passengers on car 138 of the Washington Traction and Electric Company were thrown from their seats when a collision occurred on D street between First and Second streets northwest about 7:15 o'clock last night. At the Casualty Hospital, where the injured negro was taken it was said this morning that he was in a serious condition. Docket is fifty-four years old and lives at 126 C street southwest.

"The Catholic Is the Only Hope of the Negro."

In order to bring to the knowledge of the Colored People the true teachings of the Catholic Church, Mr. Augustine Joseph McNorton, a student of St. Joseph's Catholic Semmary, has become the editor of a weekly Colored Catholic newspaper. The Catholic Herald is the only Colored Catholic paper in the United States. It is eight pages, dignified, and well illustrated.

Curtains Cause Blaze.

Curtains coming in contact with a lighted gas jet caused a fire in George P. Laner's residence, 3406 Brightwood avenue yesterday afternoon. An alarm was sounded from box $21 and several engine and truck companies of the fire department were on the scene in a few moments. Police of the Tenth precinct station estimated the damage at $50.

SLACK PLAGIARIZED. Everybody who is familiar with the speeches and the sayings of the Hon. Joe Slack, of Grenada, Miss., knows that the author of "The Spenders" cribbed Mr. Slack's expression wherein he introduces the rabbit, the bulldog and a few drops of whis y.

The author of "The Spenders" uses the idea with aptness, but with not one-lifth of the effect it had when Joe Slack first flung it at a jury. Mr. Slack's client was charged with bootlegging. He had given a drink of delicious old Bourbon to a lowdown scamp who reported the deed to the grand jury. Mr. Slack was defending the gentleman—and we know he was a gentleman because he was not so much hurt at being charged with violating the law as he was bard hit because his mellifluous liquor had been taken for the pine top brand of the bootlegger.

taken for the pine top brand of the bootlegger.

"Gentlemen," said Mr. Slack, "it's an indelible stain upon the escutcheon of Mississippi that one of her citizens should be unable to distinguish good old Bourbon from the vitrolic wildcat variety. The one brings the soul into a realization of the joys of paradise; three drops of the other sprinkled on a young rabbit's tail will make him rise up and spit in a buildor's face,"—Memphis Com-
